The Righteous Rule of Reconciliation of the Universe, as Found in Ephesians

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

While the specific words “reigning” and “ruling” are not found in Ephesians, other similar such dominion related words and expressions do appear there. For example:

in that! After all, Christ is seated at God's right hand, “among the Celestials, up OVER every sovereignty and authority and power and lordship, and every name that is named, not only in this eon, but also in that which is impending: and subjects all under His feet, and gives Him, as Head over all, TO the Ecclesia” (:20-22).

Sonship

Ephesians 1:5 talks about us being in “the place of a son” – the very essence of sonship is headship and dominion.¹ We will not just be vacationing among the Celestials – we will be God's Sons there! We'll be His seated authorities!

Allotment

Ephesians 1:11 tells us that our lot has been cast in Christ. Whatever His role and allotment, we share in that! We are His joint Body. If He reigns and rules, then we will too! – and we know that Paul had just declared that God's plan is “to Head up all in THE Christ” (:10).

Plērōma

Ephesians 1:23 strikingly declares that we are “the Complement [Plērōma] of the One completing the All in all.”² Whatever Christ is doing, we are His fulness

Enthronement

Ephesians 2:6 then stresses that, as Christ is seated at God's right hand, and our lot is cast in Him, and we too are Sons, then God also “rouses us together and seats us together among the Celestials, in Christ Jesus ...” This “seating” speaks of enthroned dominion, but unlike that of Israel, ours in Christ is Universal, “to head up all in THE Christ – both that in the Heavens and that on the Earth” (1:10) ... “after Whom every kindred in the Heavens and on Earth is being named” (3:15) ... “in the Heavens and that on the Earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or lordships, or sovereignities, or authorities” (Colossians 1:16) ... “whether those on the Earth or those in the Heavens” (:20).

“Unsearchable Riches of Christ”

by — Dr. Harold P. Morgan (1883-1953)

The unsearchable riches of Christ (Ephesians 3:8).
The untraceable riches of the Christ (REB).

The secret of the “riches of Christ” found in Ephesians was untraceable by man, inasmuch as it was “hid in God” (Ephesians 3:9) – not hidden in the Scriptures of the prophets nor the writings of the evangelists,¹ but closely guarded from before time.

It pleased the Father to reveal this wondrous secret to Paul after the blindness of Israel as a nation was complete. Nothing whatsoever is here seen of Israel’s hope, Abrahamic blessing, and the benefits and conditions pertaining to the Pentecostal Administration, or the High Priesthood or Advocacy of Messiah.

The Letter to the Ephesians has to do with an administration, referred to also in the Epistle to the Colossians through which God, in superabounding grace is now revealing Himself in manifold wisdom, and to all ages plans to display the transcendent glory of His grace. This, then, is the present position and future blessedness of the Church, the Body of Christ.

Romans & Ephesians

Even the Epistle to the Romans, having been written within the period covered by the Book of Acts, is concerned with Davidic and Abrahamic blessings, and consequently the Jew throughout is in the foremost place.² About four years before the close of the Book of Acts, Paul declares that “God has not cast away His people whom He foreknew” (Romans 11:2). Bear in mind that the Epistle to the Ephesians has nothing to say of Abraham. The two epistles have totally different centers. Romans presents the benefits flowing from the resurrected Lord Jesus Christ. Ephesians is of the superabounding blessings flowing from the ascended Christ, the Head of the Church.

Not a hint of the present parenthetical period is traceable anywhere outside of Paul's epistles to the Ephesians and Colossians.³ Everything made known

As the dominion of Israel on Earth is for the reconciliation of the Nations, so our instrumentality of enthroned dominion (seated authority) is the reconciliation of the Universe!

Panoply

Thus, Paul closes out his epistle to the Ephesians with the “panoply” (a full suit of armor, 6:10ff). This is the illustration of military occupation among the Celestials.³ All such occupation is designed for dominion. Ours (THE Christ: Head and Body) is the righteous

The Curse of Coniah and Christ's Genealogy (A Compilation)

The virgin birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, was an absolute necessity, judging from the genealogies. At first glance the opposite seems to be the logical deduction. Why should His descent be traced back to David and Abraham unless He was their natural Heir? Why go back to Adam unless He had a perfect pedigree? Authors include: John Cale, Joseph Hartill, A.E. Knoch and Fred Meldau.

Preceding World Peace

[Excerpt:] “Yet you shall be about to be hearing battles, and tidings of battles. See that you are not alarmed, for it must be occurring; but not as yet is the consummation” (Matthew 24:6, CV).

This clearly implies a preceding time of sustained world peace, for otherwise battles and tidings of battles would become nothing new to serve as a sign of our Lord’s presence in advance of His ultimate revelation then impending.

The Lake of Fire

[Excerpt:] Interestingly, our word “fire” comes from the Greek word pur. Our words “purify” and “purge” come from this root. We see instances in the Old Testament where fire is indeed used to purify.

So, could it be that the “Lake of Fire” is the presence of God – as when God appeared to Moses in the burning bush – purifying and refining instead of tormenting? One thing we do know: the “Lake of Fire” will fulfill God’s purposes in some way, and we do not read of any of its participants remaining there forever and ever.

I could never understand how God, Who is a God of love, could torment forever in fire those who did not accept Jesus Christ as Savior in this short lifetime. I can fully understand the “Lake of Fire” if its purpose is refinement and purification: consistent with the love of God, and with His ultimate goal of saving all creation at the end of the ages.

I do not question that there is a judgment; surely there is! I do not question that there is a “Lake of Fire”! But the Bible tells us that the “Lake of Fire” is the “Second Death,” and that death is not eternal but will one day be abolished (I Corinthians 15).

Nothing New in the Book of Acts

[Edited excerpt:] The commonly accepted idea that the Book of Acts introduces something entirely new in the economy of God has no warrant in Scripture. ... Whereas the Kingdom is the plain declaration of all the prophecies, the “Secret” of the One Body was hidden in God until the final rejection by the nation

The Writings of W.B. Screws

Screws, of Glennville, GA, a former Primitive Baptist pastor, was an able advocate of the Pauline gospel and staunch defender of the ultimate salvation of all mankind. He had an extensive teaching ministry that was concentrated, but not limited to, the southeastern United States. He was also the long-time editor of the monthly periodical, The Pilgrim’s Messenger.

An associate of A.E. Knoch (1874-1965), he conducted a regular circuit ministry throughout Georgia and South Carolina. He co-labored regionally with many brothers including W.H. Bundy (1881-1952). He taught in Bible conferences as far away as San Antonio, TX, and El Centro, Oakland, and Los Angeles, CA.

Israel as recorded in the last chapter of the Book of Acts. The doctrine of this unique out-calling of God was unknown until revealed to Paul, subsequent to the divinely historic event of Israel's final rejection. ...

Whatever blessings the Gentiles received during the administration [covered in the Book of Acts] came through their vital relationship to Israel's favored position before Jehovah. This gracious act was in accord with the Mosaic instructions that the Gentiles were to have the grain left by Israel in the fields (Leviticus 23:22). ...

Four times in the Book of Acts the phrase is met: "Be it known unto you." The phrase marks in each instance a crisis in the history of the favored nation. Four times is pardon offered to the Jews, twice by Peter and twice by Paul. Twice in the land under the commission of Acts 1:8, and twice outside of the land under the commission of Acts 9:15. Four times Israel hardens its heart. Finally, Paul, as a prisoner "for the hope of Israel," pronounced sentence upon the nation for its stubborn rejection of the Spirit's ministry (see, Matthew 12:32). No longer is the nation groping in partial blindness (Romans 11:25), for total blindness has now set in (Acts 28:23-27). Instead of "the times of restitution of all things" (Acts 3:21), the Kingdom is postponed. The murderers of Messiah have murdered His messengers also. Israel became Lo-ammni, "Not my people" (Hosea 1:9).

The Date of the Book of Revelation

[To D.S.:] It is tradition that gives the *Book of Revelation*¹ (or the Unveiling) a date of being written in A.D. 95. From the Scriptures themselves we reject such a late date for the book.²

It is also important to understand that the books of the "New Testament" are not laid out in our Bibles in the chronological order in which they were written. Just because the Book of Revelation appears last in our Bibles, does not mean that it was written last. In fact, it would have to have been written during the exact same timeframe as all of the rest of the Jewish books of the Greek Scriptures (Matthew, Mark, Luke,

1. For a look at the nature of this book, see:
– The Book of Revelation: A Jewish Book, Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr., Tidbits of Truth #14, Bible Student's Notebook #871.
2. We are not alone in this assertion:

"I am far from satisfied with the dates generally assigned to the vision and writing of the Apocalypse. If, as I maintain, the banishment of John to the Isle of Patmos occurred during the reign of Claudius (41-54), which Neander, Schaff, Lightfoot and Salmon seem to think not unlikely, then the date, 95 A.D., heretofore assigned to the writing of this prophecy, will have to give way in favor of a much earlier date.

"If we are to accord external evidence any place, I incline then to the testimony of Tertullian and Jerome among other eminent writers of the earliest Apocalyptic commentators, who imply much earlier years for the vision and writing. It has been pointed out by the conservative theologians of the Tubingen School that the ambiguous language of Irenaeus, upon which the slender theory of a late date rests, is to be taken to mean not that the Apostle John was alive about the close of the reign of Domitian, but that the existence of the Book of the Revelation was a well-known fact at that time.

"I contended also that the entire Apocalypse is Jewish. No other view removes so many difficulties, or makes the interpretation of the book so simple and intelligible. It accounts for the pronouncedly Judaic element throughout." – Dr. Harold P. Morgan (1883-1953), The Revolt \(Against the Distinctive Ministry of the Apostle Paul\), 1936 (See order form under "Morgan."

The Apostle of the Reconciliation

by — Charles H. Welch (1880-1967)

This book shows the dispensational place of Acts and the earlier epistles of Paul. It follows a threefold division of Acts: 1. Restoration – restoring the Kingdom to Israel (1-9); 2. Reconciliation – typified by the vision of the sheet and the salvation of Cornelius (10-14); 3. Rejection – foreshadowed in Paul's first miracle (13) and actually fulfilled in the setting aside of Israel (28).

John, Acts, Hebrews, James, I & II Peter, I, II & III John, Jude), i.e., during the Acts period.

Most fail to realize the crucial significance of Acts 28:28. At the close of the Book of Acts we find the judicial decree of the present blinding of Israel. With Israel being “Lo-ammi” (“not My people”), the nation’s prophetic program was held in abeyance, along with the voice of her prophets being silent (including John!).

After the Acts period, Paul wrote the epistles of the Secret Administration: Ephesians and Colossians.³ No Jewish Scriptures could be written during our current Administration, and Paul tells us plainly in the last epistle that he wrote that he was completing the Word of God.⁴

Of which I became a dispenser, in accord with the administration of God, which is granted to me for you, to Complete the Word of God (Colossians 1:25, CV).

ferent systems is filled with discrepancies and is subject to many errors.

What I assert is that the conclusions of the chronologists are often mere conjectures, and conjecture necessarily varies with different minds. It would seem that every chronologist supersedes the guesses of his predecessors by theories as baseless as his own.

The dates usually assigned to the Pauline Epistles were hypothetical for the most part. Deissmann, in reference to the subject of chronology, in his book The New Testament in the Light of Modern Research, states:

The chronology of the individual letters [of Paul] is not yet fully ascertained. Positive dates are given in most modern books, but they are only of a more or less hypothetical nature (pp. 31-32).

Speaking of the difficulties encountered in biblical chronology, Sir Robert Anderson, affirms, “Here certainty vanishes” (The Coming Prince); and Ivan Panin comments, “Babel is writ large over it all” (Bible Chronology).

Approachment⁵ vs. Appeasement

In my book The Undoing of Adam and the Approach Present of God I discuss the true nature of sacrifice in Scripture. As with other sacrifices, the death of Christ was a “gift” (or “present”) – yet in this case the gift was from God, whereby He “drew near” to (or “approached”) alienated mankind. This is a very important truth to understand. This is approachment rather than appeasement, reconciliation rather than retribution, grace rather than works.

5. The act of coming near.” – American Dictionary of the English Language, Noah Webster (1828).

Nearly 300 times the Concordant Version uses the phrase “approach present.” It was not God Who was alienated from man, but man who was alienated from God. Calvary was God’s “approach present” offered for the purpose of reconciling mankind to Himself.⁶

For in grace, through faith, are you saved, and this is not out of you; it is God’s approach present (Ephesians 2:8, CV).

Yet all is of God, Who conciliates us to Himself through Christ, and is giving us the dispensation of the conciliation, how that God was in Christ, conciliating the world to Himself, not reckoning their offenses to them, and placing in us the word of the conciliation (II Corinthians 5:18-19, CV).

Heaven’s Embassy – The Divine Plan and Purpose of the Home

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it (Psalm 127:1).

This book represents many years of work. The author believes that it is one of the most important books that he will ever be privileged to write, simply because it concerns one of the most vital scriptural subjects that could ever be addressed.

See order form under “Clyde Pilkington.”

The home is central to all of God’s dealings with man throughout the course of time. It is His Divine “institution” and “organization” on the earth; for the believer, it is the Embassy of Heaven. An embassy is “the residence or office of an ambassador.” Since the believer is an ambassador of the Lord Jesus Christ (II Corinthians 5:14-21), his home is thus the Divine Embassy of heavenly ministry.

Pauline ministry is centered in the homes of believers. This is even the true sphere of the Body of Christ; for this reason our apostle speaks of “church in thy house.” This book doesn’t focus on the external specifics of the ministry of Heaven’s Embassy (such as hospitality); that will be saved for another volume. Instead, it looks at the inner-workings of the Embassy itself, focusing on its very nature, internal purpose and function.

Paul Laboring Under the Great Commission

The 12 Apostles AND Paul carried out the Great Commission in the Book of Acts. Not until Acts 28:28 did Paul stop doing the “Nations” part of the Great Commission. After chapter 13 there were two gospel messages: one for the Jews, and one for the Gentiles. But they both had the same hope up until Acts 28:28.

Understanding that Paul was doing the Great Commission during two of his three ministries, and that the members of the Body of Christ of that time were Proselytes of Israel is a game changer. It changes much that is misunderstood about Paul's early epistles. Wherever there is a future hope or work spoken of it needs to be reevaluated.

(See order form under “Knoch.”)

This publication is a compilation of the writings of A.E. Knoch on human destiny. The author examines three major theories on this topic current among students of Scripture. The striking phrase “All in all,” which pertains to the vivification of all mankind in I Corinthians 15:28 and relates to the reconciliation of the entire intelligent creation in Ephesians 1:23, is discussed at length. Two extensive appendices are included, exploring the usage of the terms “eon” and “eonian” in the Scriptures.
