The Believer's Liberty

and a Look at Romans 14

by – Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage (Galatians 5:1).

According to Galatians 5:1 Christ freed us for the purpose of freedom! He freed us to be free – not to be entangled again into bondage. Christ did not die for theoretical liberty. He freed us to experience and live in freedom.

Listen how some other translations have rendered this glorious verse:

Christ has set us free in freedom; stand fast therefore, and be not held again in a yoke of bondage (Darby).

For freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage (American Standard).

It was for freedom that Christ has set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery (Common Edition).

For freedom Christ frees us! Stand firm, then, and be not again enthralled with the yoke of slavery (Concordant).

For freedom did Christ make us free; stand fast, therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage (Weymouth).

Here are the simple facts:

The Lord Jesus Christ Himself Makes Us Free

If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed (John 8:36).

Christ's Spirit, Resident in Us, Makes Us Free

... Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (II Corinthians 3:17).

Truth Makes Us Free

And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free (John 8:32).

We are Free from the Bondage of Sin

Being then made free from sin (Romans 6:18, 22; c.f. Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 1:14).

We are Free from the Bondage of Condemnation and Guilt

There is therefore now no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1).

Paul Our Guide – Christ Our Goal

ISSN: 1936-9360

Volume XI, No. 253 – August 10, 2010

This weekly publication (52 times a year) is dedicated to:

- the proclamation of the riches of God's abundant, exceeding grace (Romans 5:20; 11:6; Ephesians 1:7);
- the affirmation of God's purpose to save all mankind through the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ (1 Timothy 2:3, 4; 4:10; Titus 2:11);
- the "preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began" (Romans 16:25);
- true freedom and liberty apart from law (Galatians 5:1);
- the organic nature of the church, the Body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12);
- the distinct message and ministry of Paul, the apostle to the nations (Romans 11:13);
- the importance of receiving all whom Christ has received (Romans 14-15);
- the recovery of rich Biblical truth that has too long remained hidden under the veils of traditionalism, prejudice, misunderstanding, and fear (Mark 7:7, 13);
- the completeness of the believer in Christ (Colossians 2:10), with:
  - total forgiveness of sins (Colossians 1:14);
  - identity in His death, burial, and resurrection (Romans 6);
  - adult sonship position (Galatians 4).

This publication is a joint effort of a few members of the body of Christ. It is a product of our individual lives and ministries together. We do not claim infallibility for its contents. Our readers are asked to be as the Bereans and search the Scriptures (Acts 17:10-11; 1 Thessalonians 5:21).

This publication is not connected with any "church," "denomination," "movement," "organization," "mission," "creed," "meeting," "school," "conference" or "fellowship."

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God Who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ Who died, or rather, Who is risen again, Who is even at the right hand of God, Who also makes intercession for us (Romans 8:33-34).

We are Free from the Bondage of Religion

Wherefore, if you are dead with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ordinances (touch not; taste not; handle not; which all are to perish with the using), according to the commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh (Colossians 2:20-23).

We are Free from the Bondage of Tradition

We are not bound by man's vain religious traditions.

Making the Word of God of no effect through your traditions ... (Mark 7:13).

But in vain they do worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (Matthew 15:9).

We Are Free from the Bondage of Fear

For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, love and a sound mind (II Timothy 1:7).

We are Free from the Bondage of the Opinion of Others

With me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment (I Corinthians 4:3).

Freedom is Our Birthright!

For you have not received the spirit of bond- age again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry, "Abba, Father" (Romans 8:15).

We have been freed to be free. We are free to live, to serve, to love, to be WHO WE ARE in Christ!

With these wonderful truths of freedom and liberty also comes Paul's solemn warning:

Be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage (Galatians 5:1).

A MIRAGE OF FREEDOM

Religion offers up an appearance of freedom; but it is not freedom at all – for it can't actually be lived and practiced – it is only a "freedom" in theory.

If there is even a hint of "freedom" in the religious system, it really is only a mirage. It is an illusion; and this is exactly what legalism produces – a fantasy of freedom, where no one is actually free at all. There is plenty of talk about freedom, but when it actually comes to living free, the believer has his liberty taken away through the strategic misuse of Scriptures. Legalists enact such twisted standards as "abstain from all appearance of evil"<sup>1</sup> and "be sure not to offend anyone."

All of this is the classic bait-and-switch. Legalists bait the unsuspecting with language of freedom, and then once they have them under their influence they take away the right to practice the very freedom that they claim to profess – making it merely a delusion of freedom.

THE MODERN LEGALIST

Legalists are insulted by freedom. They refuse liberty and want to make sure that others are not free either. Beware of these freedom-killers – they are everywhere! Christianity is literally filled with them.

They use manipulation and intimidation to reach their goals. These spiritual captors terrorize their victims. They use strong-arm tactics to attack the very root of our freedom in Christ. They do so with their attitudes, language and facial expressions. With judgmental spirits they attempt to bully the believer back into man-made bondage. This “form of godliness” is nothing short of the victimization of believers. This vicious oppression has gone on for far too long. It is time for their sinister work to be exposed.

THE PROFESSIONAL WEAKER BROTHER

The legalist will even pawn themselves off as “weaker brothers” to achieve their goals; but this is actually professionals at work – they are not “weak,” nor are they “brothers,” but diehard legalists. Paul calls them “false brothers secretly brought in” (Galatians 2:4).

Resist man-made restrictions. Reject legalistic regulations. Refuse to live under the edicts of those who have appointed themselves judges-and-juries of our lives.

Liberty is worth fighting for, not only for ourselves, but for others, so that they, too, may enjoy the freedom for which Christ made them free, and that the truth of the gospel might continue (Galatians 2:5).

Christ has set us free for freedom. Be free. Stand firm and strong in this godly freedom. Do not allow yourself to be “entangled again in the yoke of bondage.” Reject the attempt of anyone to play “God” in your life. Stop desiring the approval of others. Guide others to freedom. Encourage their freedom. Give them the grace to be free. Live free.

BEWARE OF LEGALISTS

Warning: Professional legalists have had two thousand years of perfecting their misuse of Scripture and abuse of saints in order to bring them into bondage under their control!

Earlier in Paul’s letter to the Galatians, he told of those who even go so far as to spy out the liberty of a believer in an effort to gain lordship over their freedom. Paul gave his own testimony to his diligent opposition to their tyranny.

And that because of false brothers unawares brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you (Galatians 2:4-5).

But that issue was because of those false brothers smuggled in, who sneaked in to spy out our liberty that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might enslave us. To whom we yielded in subjection not even for an hour, so that the truth of the good-news might continue with you (A Conservative Version).

Wow, religious spies! We are talking about legalistic espionage, with its snooping, prying and eavesdropping.

This is staggering, but true: there are those who will so despise your freedom and liberty that they will instigate a spying operation against you. They will covertly investigate – under the guise of brotherhood – every little detail of your life that they can, so as to “dig up” something on you in an effort to entangle you in the bondage of their legalism.

Yet Paul would not put up with it! He refused to subject himself to their petty inquisitions and pious lordship. He refused to tolerate them not just for his sake, and that of his own personal liberty, but for the very “truth of the gospel” that it “might continue” freely in others.

For freedom Christ freed us!

Stand firm!

Sadly, such professional legalists have greatly influenced our understanding of many passages of Scripture. One such passage is Romans chapter 14. This passage is not an attack on freedom, but is in fact a defense of liberty. Because this chapter is a classic passage used to undermine the believer's freedom, it will be the focus of our attention in this study. We will see the truth of our liberty championed by Paul in the very context of Romans 14.

“WEAK” AND “STRONG”

Receive him who is weak in the faith, but not to doubtful disputations (Romans 14:1).

Paul here makes a distinction between the “weak” and the “strong” concerning “the faith.”

“The faith” is a phrase used by Paul to refer to that body of truth which the Lord Jesus Christ revealed to him, and which he recorded in letters to the called-out ones (ecclesia), Christ's Body.

Paul takes sides, identifying himself with the “strong” (Romans 15:1).

We then who are strong ...

THE LIBERTY OF EATING MEAT

For one believes that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eats herbs (Romans 14:2).

The weak have many religious scruples. Their consciences are bound under neglect, ignorance, and misunderstanding of “the faith.”

The first issue that Paul specified in relationship to such religious scruples was that of eating meat. The weak at Rome were religious vegetarians. The strong understood that God had given them the freedom to eat “all things” (I Timothy 4:3).

The religious abstinence of certain foods is an expression of one's personal understanding (i.e., “faith”) of the entire teaching of “the revelation of the mystery” (Romans 16:25) committed to Paul. In Paul's letters dietary restrictions are not applied to the believer. In the writings of Paul, which constitute the body of truth for today (Romans 2:16), we have the following admonition:

Let no man therefore judge you in meat (Colossians 2:16-17).

Paul identifies “commanding to abstain from meats” as a “teaching of demons” (i.e., “doctrine of devils,” I Timothy 4:1).

Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils ... commanding to abstain from meats, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by them who believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it is received with thanksgiving (I Timothy 4:1-4).

Faith from God can hear the declaration,

For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused.

NO DESPISING, NO JUDGING

Let not him who eats despise him who eats not; and let not him who eats not judge him who eats: for God has received him (Romans 14:3).

Paul here instructs both the strong and the weak mutually. The strong are not to “despise” the weak. The weak are not to “judge” the strong.

WE STAND BEFORE HIM

Who are you to judge another man's servant? To his own Master he stands or falls. Yes, he shall be held up: for God is able to make him stand (Romans 14:4).

Paul does not shift his focus from the weak to the strong between verse 3 and 4. He continues his instruction to the weak regarding their relationship to the strong. Paul here makes it abundantly clear that the weak should not rebuke the strong for something that it is not declared by God Himself to be a sin against “the faith.” For the weak to judge the strong they would need to presume to be holier than God. ▶

Conduct is a matter between a servant and his Master. Even John Murray (a very law-oriented teacher) highlights this by what he calls “the impropriety of intermeddling in the domestic affairs of other people.”<sup>2</sup> This is elsewhere called in Scripture being a “busy-body in other men’s matters” (I Peter 4:15).

The strong are not to be judged by the weak, for the strong have their appeal before divine judgment, where they will be approved and upheld. God is able to make them stand strong in their freedom.

Paul here firmly establishes the truth of liberty. The weak do not have the right to bind the actions of the strong on an issue not condemned by Pauline Scripture. Paul was clear about this in I Corinthians 4:3-5.

But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man’s judgment: I judge not my own self. For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but He Who judges me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time until the Lord comes, Who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God (I Corinthians 4:3-5).

THE OBSERVANCE OF DAYS

One man esteems one day above another: another esteems every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind (Romans 14:5).

The second issue that Paul specifies in relationship to scruples is that of the religious observance of days. The weak at Rome were persuaded that some days were holy above others and were to be observed with religious devotion.

If it was the revelation of God for believers today to observe “holy days,” then obviously it would be disobedience to not observe a direct command of God. If this were true, such a practice would clearly not be a matter of being weak or strong. In fact, it would not be an issue of liberty at all: it would be an outright sin. Paul never left an issue of divine instruction to one’s individual discretion.

The revelation given to Paul by the risen, ascended, enthroned Lord Jesus Christ included freedom from the observance of holy days.

The religious observance of days is yet another disclosure of one’s understanding (i.e., “faith”) concerning the entire teaching of “the revelation of the mystery” (Romans 16:25) committed to Paul. During “the dispensation of the grace of God” (Ephesians 3:2; Colossians 1:25), the law, as a rule of conduct, is not once applied to the believer.

The Sabbath is mentioned nine times in the book of Acts – a transitional book – in reference to the Twelve Apostles in Israel’s Kingdom Church. The book of Acts does not deal with the “revelation of the mystery.” This glorious message was only written about by Paul in his epistles.

During the unique period of the Book of Acts Paul himself took advantage of the Sabbath to share the gospel (I Corinthians 9:20); but when we get to his writings, which constitute the body of truth for today (Romans 2:16), there are only two references to the observance of days. Read these passages carefully:

Let no man therefore judge<sup>3</sup> you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days: which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ (Colossians 2:16-17).

... Why do you turn again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto you desire again to be in bondage? You observe days, and months, and times, and years (Galatians 4:9-10).

In these two passages we learn that all of Israel’s holy days were simply a “shadow of things”

2. Murray, John, The Epistle to the Romans (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1965), volume 2, p. 176.

3. As in Romans chapter 14, we see that it is the “weak” who judge.

to come,” and that Paul even refers to them as “weak and beggarly elements.”

No day is holy in itself – all days are alike. A day (or anything else) is holy only by divine decree. No such decree appears anywhere in those letters written by Paul. Paul actually feared for those who observed days.

You observe days, and months, and times, and years. I fear for you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain (Galatians 4:10-11).

Even though Paul encouraged the reception of those members of Christ’s Body who observed days, he said that they observed them as a result of being “weak in the faith,” and that they were not to be received “to doubtful disputations.”

Receive him who is weak in the faith, but not to doubtful disputations (Romans 14:1).

Verse 4 ends with “Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.” These are truly amazing words from the Apostle of grace. Moses could never have made such a statement. The Law allowed no liberty of action in such things.

EACH WILL GIVE AN ACCOUNT

He who regards the day, regards it unto the Lord; and he who regards not the day, to the Lord he does not regard it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he who eats not, to the Lord he eats not, and gives God thanks. For none of us lives to himself, and no man dies to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord’s. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that He might be Lord both of the dead and living. But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you set at naught your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, “As I live,” says the Lord, “every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God.” So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God (Romans 14:6-12).

Here Paul emphasizes that there is but one legitimate judge – the Lord Jesus Christ. The believer is not to submit to the will of the many around him, but to the one Lord above him, as He and He alone has been appointed to be the judge of all men. Each person is individually accountable only to God.

As Wayne Jacobson has written,

All the accountability in Scripture is linked to God, not to other brothers and sisters. When we hold one another accountable, we are really usurping God’s place. It’s why we end up hurting one another so deeply.<sup>4</sup>

A “STUMBLING BLOCK”

Let us not therefore judge each other any more: but judge this rather, that no man puts a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother’s way (Romans 14:13).

Believers are familiar with the principle of a “stumbling block.” Sadly, its true nature is not as generally known or understood.

This is one of the most important and yet misunderstood verses in the whole realm of discussion concerning believers’ true liberty.

Paul now begins to address the strong. We know that he changes from speaking to the weak and now moves to the strong for the following reasons:

1. Paul (who is strong 15:1) now speaks in the first person (“Let us not judge ...” 14:13).
2. In the context, it is the weak who are in danger of “stumbling” by their very nature of being weak. Strength denotes stability, while weakness represents instability.
3. The danger of a “stumbling block” here refers to the scruples of abstaining from certain ►

4. Wayne Jacobson, So You Don’t Want To Go To Church Anymore, 2006, pp. 44-45.

foods (:14, 21, 23). The strong do not have such scruples, since Paul's revelation had no such dietary restrictions.

We must study to understand exactly what Paul meant when he said that the strong should not "put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way" (:13). This understanding must be solidly based upon a proper knowledge of the Greek words used here:

proskomma – "stumbling block"

skandalon – "an occasion to fall"

Proskomma

As with so many words of Scripture, Christianity has managed to obscure the meaning and concept of a "stumbling block." Many are led to assume that the "stumbling block" refers to an issue that the weak do not like; that somehow it agitates, perturbs or annoys them. However, proskomma has far stronger implications than these words would suggest.

Proskomma is used in Romans 9:32, I Peter 2:8 and I Corinthians 1:23 in identifying the Lord Jesus Christ as Israel's "stone of stumbling" (i.e., Isaiah 8:14). The seriousness of the issue of a "stumbling block" is clearly attested in Matthew 8:12; 21:43-44; 23:32-24:2. The result of Israel's "stumbling block" was that they would be broken to pieces and scattered like dust (Luke 20:17-18). Thus, Israel's stumbling and her consequent destruction are inseparably connected – they are the cause and effect.

This is why Thayer's Lexicon defines proskomma as,

Stumbling block, i.e., an obstacle in the way which if one strike his foot against he necessarily stumbles or falls ... i.e., ... impelled to sin.<sup>5</sup>

Consequently, then, "to put a stumbling block in one's way" is "to furnish one an occasion for sinning."<sup>6</sup>

In Romans chapter 14 (as well as in I Corinthians chapter 8) the issue with Paul is not the simple matters of annoying or irritating others (as in the misused phrase, "I find that offensive"). Instead, it is about that which is the "cause of spiritual ruin."<sup>7</sup>

The strong need to be very careful here with regard to their liberty. Professional "weaker brothers" will be "offended" at many "things" in order to bring the strong into bondage.

The religionists have successfully equated the idea of being "offended" with somehow being displeased, disappointed, unhappy, peeved, irked, irritated, annoyed, upset or antagonistic. If the truth of Romans 14 is thus misunderstood, the strong will NEVER be able to live in their liberty, because there is hardly any faith-action in which they can engage that someone within Christendom is not – by this pharisaical definition – "offended."

Skandalon

Skandalon is defined by the Arndt-Gingrich Lexicon as,

1. trap. 2. temptation to sin, enticement to apostasy, false belief, etc.<sup>8</sup>

Thayer defines it as:

- a. properly, the moveable stick or [trigger] of a trap, ...<sup>9</sup>
- b. metaphorically any person or thing by which one is ("entrapped") drawn into error or sin.<sup>10</sup>

Skandalon is clearly the cause of actual sin, apostasy and spiritual ruin. It is vital that we understand this as the very nature of the word. Thus skandalon, "in the New Testament interpretation are those who lead into sin and apostasy."<sup>11</sup>
